

Louisville Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.,
EAST SIDE THIRD STREET,
BETWEEN MARKET AND JEFFERSON.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS

For State Treasurer.

JAMES H. GARRARD,
OF BOYLE COUNTY.

For Congress.

First District—HON. H. C. BURNETT

Second " HON. S. O. PEYTON

Third " JOSEPH H. LEWIS

Fourth " A. G. TALBOT

Fifth " L. M. H. JEWELL

Sixth " H. J. M. ELLIOTT

Seventh " THOMAS H. HOT

Eighth " HON. JAMES B. CLAY

Ninth " HON. J. C. MASON

Tenth " HON. J. W. STEVENSON

WEDNESDAY.....JUNE 24, 1857.

stating distinctly that there should be no child's play; that he would give the mob powder and ball. Powder and ball are precisely what ought to be used upon a mob; especially one that obstructs the polls to insult American citizens, and drives them from the elective franchise.

" The editor of the organ says the Mayor of Washington knew the marines could be trusted to fire on Americans, for they were nearly all Irish; yet he shows they could not be trusted, for "scores of Democrats, women, and children, and negroes were killed or wounded, and but one American."

" The letter to the Boston Traveller, which we published yesterday, was written by one who avows himself opposed alike to Americans and Douglass' Journal.

Then he was a Black Republican, and a very fit witness to testify against Buchanan before a Kentucky tribunal!

" The clergyman who gives a certificate, which was republished in the Journal from an Abolition sheet, is probably one of the three thousand who protested in the name of Almighty God against the Nebraska-Kansas bill!

RALLY, RALLY!

The Democrats of the Fifth and Sixth Wards will hold a meeting this evening at Democratic Headquarters, on Fifth, between Market and Jefferson streets.

Democratic Meeting in the First District.

The Democracy of the First and Second Wards will meet at Henneberger's, on Green street, between Hancock and Main streets, on Friday evening, the 29th inst. A large number of immigrants will be present, and a large number of negroes, who are to be present.

Then he was a Black Republican, and a very fit witness to testify against Buchanan before a Kentucky tribunal!

" The clergyman who gives a certificate, which was republished in the Journal from an Abolition sheet, is probably one of the three thousand who protested in the name of Almighty God against the Nebraska-Kansas bill!

" The organ yesterday morning contained an article written in the most violent and revolutionary style. The writer represents that the organs of the Democratic party laud the foreign population, and disparage and degrade the native-born. He says the President has judged that the true-hearted sons of the soil are not fit to be trusted with the public arms. "The blush of shame should mantle the cheek of every honest American." Foreign mercenaries, by which republics and empires were brought to ruin, will soon control our government, and the insolence of foreigners toward native-born citizens will be unbearable." He says:

" It is but reasonable that the foreigners should think themselves vastly superior to native-born citizens when they are told that the men of their country far exceed those of the sons of the soil, that their courage is unequalled, while native-born Americans are cowards, and that the spirit of meanness is characteristic of many virtuous Americans, while the base and more brutal foreigners govern the American nation.

" The time has come," says he, "when every American who truly loves his country and her institutions, should ponder well upon this subject, and look into the fearful abyss upon whose very edge we are now tottering." We have insisted upon having the right of suffrage in this city according to the laws and Constitution of this State, and protested agains the practice of regulators who placed themselves in the polls, and drove from the ballot-box men entitled to vote by our laws; but it is idle to insist upon such things with such a party. The case, according to them, is desperate, and requires desperate remedies. They need not deny the practices they are charged with. They can plead a desperate necessity; and let them at once plead it, and deny no more, and look into the "fearful abyss upon whose very verge we are now tottering."

The time has come when this city should look into the fearful abyss upon the very verge of which she is now tottering. If such racing, incendiary, and revolutionary stuff as this is to guide the dominant party in Louisville, we should like to know where her credit will go to. This is the language of revolution, not of a party contest. It invites not to the peaceful support of law, but to the overthrow of institutions that fall to support the rights of the country. If there be a word of truth in this, the time for law is over, and the day of revolution has come. No wonder foreigners are not allowed to vote under such inflammatory language. A desperate necessity over-rides the law and the Constitution. It is a real Mexican pronunciamento addressed to the fiercest passions and adapted to the worst results.

" Who is the correspondent of the Boston Traveller, a abolitionist, and who are these certificate makers paraded as witnesses against the authorities at Washington? Are there any such persons in Washington? Did they ever give such certificates? There are none.

10 That the marines attended at the Seventh street poll, where the Mayor addressed the voters, and urged them to allow the election to proceed, and read the law to them. That the Plug-Uglies and their friends, instead of yielding to the law and request of the Mayor, endeavored to fire the canon, and one sought to shoot Gen. Henderson with a pistol, and was prevented by a blow on the arm from a marine.

11 That by order of their officers the marines, with fixed bayonets, drove the Plug-Uglies and their friends from the cannon, and took possession of the gun, and then fired revolvers and pistols, and threw stones, bricks, and other missiles upon the marines, citizens, and whoever might be in range, and killed some and wounded others, including persons who were quietly in their own houses; and that, under this gallant attack, the marines fired one volley upon the rioters, and they scattered, firing and throwing missiles as they went. Whereupon peace and order were restored.

12 That not a single Know-Nothing is known to have said one word or done one thing to arrest the acts of the Plug-Uglies and their friends, who are a numerous class, and whom they never regarded as respectable and influential citizens, and who could at almost any stage of the riot have put an end to the disorder, and prevented the effusion of blood and the closing of the poll.

13 That the Know-Nothing party here, including their leaders, instead of aiding in detecting and punishing the criminal secret wherever they can, and approve the conduct of the offenders, and condemn those who upheld the law, and who are quiet in their own houses, and who could be easily apprehended, and who could be easily apprehended and punished.

14 That the organ here first published a statement purporting to come from the Washington Organ, when there was no such paper in existence. Now we are treated to a statement from an Abolition paper away in Boston, written by no one known whom, including certificates from persons no body knows; and this is to weigh in the mind of white men against the testimony of every paper in Washington, and against the testimony of eye-witnesses who have told the story. Every where Kentuckians are asked to believe such stuff, from such irresponsible sources, which it wears falsehood upon its face. These boogies witness saw a swivel at the polls in the hands of the mob. Who brought it there, and what was it brought there for? They didn't see one of the marines shot from the crowd, and badly wounded. They didn't see the brick-bats, nor hear the threats to fire the swivel. All this, which everybody else saw and heard, these boogies witness did not observe. All was peaceable. None are so blind as those who don't want to see. In another column we publish a series of notorious facts from the Washington Union, that no one will pretend to deny. They overwhelm all the ex parte bogus certificates from Abolition sources. A Massachusetts Abolition sheet, and its Abolition correspondent are very much opposed indeed to the American party. So much so that they are working with the party zealously for the election of Banks as Governor of their State!

15 Those who have read the effusions of the organ upon the Washington riots, must be edified with the results of the editor's information. The Plug-Uglies were not hurt, it seems. The marines didn't fire at them at all. They killed and wounded only foreigners and Democrats. This ought to be entirely satisfactory to the brethren. "Only one American was shot, when scores of Democrats, women, children, and negroes were killed or wounded." Now, it is not amiss to kill Democrats, men, women, and children; such things have been done and successfully defended before the brethren. It was bad policy to shoot the negroes, for they are worth some five hundred or a thousand dollars apiece, but what matters if an Irish papist, or a German infidel was killed. The brethren should be consoled when they read the developments in the organ. They were aiding the Plug-Uglies. So says the organ; and yet the editor is very indignant. We should like to know what is the matter with him, and the brethren would like to know. The marines could not have done better, according to the organ and its affidavit makers. The editor ought to thank Buchanan, Major Magruder, and especially the marines, that they could not be trusted; for they did not shoot Americans, but Democrats and foreigners. It is thought very atrocious that the Mayor said there should be no child's play; that he would give them powder and ball. He was right to proclaim the intention that he determined to execute. It is to be regretted that he was not believed. It is to be regretted that he had not time to issue a proclamation stating distinctly that there should be no child's play; that he would give the mob powder and ball. Powder and ball are precisely what ought to be used upon a mob; especially one that obstructs the polls to insult American citizens, and drives them from the elective franchise.

16 The editor of the organ says the Mayor of Washington knew the marines could be trusted to fire on Americans, for they were nearly all Irish; yet he shows they could not be trusted, for "scores of Democrats, women, and children, and negroes were killed or wounded, and but one American."

" The letter to the Boston Traveller, which we published yesterday, was written by one who avows himself opposed alike to Americans and Douglass' Journal.

Then he was a Black Republican, and a very fit witness to testify against Buchanan before a Kentucky tribunal!

" The clergyman who gives a certificate, which was republished in the Journal from an Abolition sheet, is probably one of the three thousand who protested in the name of Almighty God against the Nebraska-Kansas bill!

" The organ yesterday morning contained an article written in the most violent and revolutionary style. The writer represents that the organs of the Democratic party laud the foreign population, and disparage and degrade the native-born. He says the President has judged that the true-hearted sons of the soil are not fit to be trusted with the public arms. "The blush of shame should mantle the cheek of every honest American." Foreign mercenaries, by which republics and empires were brought to ruin, will soon control our government, and the insolence of foreigners toward native-born citizens will be unbearable." He says:

" It is but reasonable that the foreigners should think themselves vastly superior to native-born citizens when they are told that the men of their country far exceed those of the sons of the soil, that their courage is unequalled, while native-born Americans are cowards, and that the spirit of meanness is characteristic of many virtuous Americans, while the base and more brutal foreigners govern the American nation.

" The time has come," says he, "when every American who truly loves his country and her institutions, should ponder well upon this subject, and look into the fearful abyss upon whose very edge we are now tottering." We have insisted upon having the right of suffrage in this city according to the laws and Constitution of this State, and protested agains the practice of regulators who placed themselves in the polls, and drove from the ballot-box men entitled to vote by our laws; but it is idle to insist upon such things with such a party. The case, according to them, is desperate, and requires desperate remedies. They need not deny the practices they are charged with. They can plead a desperate necessity; and let them at once plead it, and deny no more, and look into the "fearful abyss upon whose very verge we are now tottering."

The time has come when this city should look into the fearful abyss upon the very verge of which she is now tottering. If such racing, incendiary, and revolutionary stuff as this is to guide the dominant party in Louisville, we should like to know where her credit will go to. This is the language of revolution, not of a party contest. It invites not to the peaceful support of law, but to the overthrow of institutions that fall to support the rights of the country. If there be a word of truth in this, the time for law is over, and the day of revolution has come. No wonder foreigners are not allowed to vote under such inflammatory language. A desperate necessity over-rides the law and the Constitution. It is a real Mexican pronunciamento addressed to the fiercest passions and adapted to the worst results.

" Who is the correspondent of the Boston Traveller, a abolitionist, and who are these certificate makers paraded as witnesses against the authorities at Washington? Are there any such persons in Washington? Did they ever give such certificates? There are none.

10 That the marines attended at the Seventh street poll, where the Mayor addressed the voters, and urged them to allow the election to proceed, and read the law to them. That the Plug-Uglies and their friends, instead of yielding to the law and request of the Mayor, endeavored to fire the canon, and one sought to shoot Gen. Henderson with a pistol, and was prevented by a blow on the arm from a marine.

11 That by order of their officers the marines, with fixed bayonets, drove the Plug-Uglies and their friends from the cannon, and took possession of the gun, and then fired revolvers and pistols, and threw stones, bricks, and other missiles upon the marines, citizens, and whoever might be in range, and killed some and wounded others, including persons who were quietly in their own houses; and that, under this gallant attack, the marines fired one volley upon the rioters, and they scattered, firing and throwing missiles as they went. Whereupon peace and order were restored.

12 That not a single Know-Nothing is known to have said one word or done one thing to arrest the acts of the Plug-Uglies and their friends, who are a numerous class, and whom they never regarded as respectable and influential citizens, and who could be easily apprehended, and who could be easily apprehended and punished.

13 That the Know-Nothing party here, including their leaders, instead of aiding in detecting and punishing the criminal secret wherever they can, and approve the conduct of the offenders, and condemn those who upheld the law, and who are quiet in their own houses, and who could be easily apprehended, and prevented the effusion of blood and the closing of the poll.

14 That the organ here first published a statement purporting to come from the Washington Organ, when there was no such paper in existence. Now we are treated to a statement from an Abolition paper away in Boston, written by no one known whom, including certificates from persons no body knows; and this is to weigh in the mind of white men against the testimony of every paper in Washington, and against the testimony of eye-witnesses who have told the story. Every where Kentuckians are asked to believe such stuff, from such irresponsible sources, which it wears falsehood upon its face. These boogies witness saw a swivel at the polls in the hands of the mob. Who brought it there, and what was it brought there for? They didn't see one of the marines shot from the crowd, and badly wounded. They didn't see the brick-bats, nor hear the threats to fire the swivel. All this, which everybody else saw and heard, these boogies witness did not observe. All was peaceable. None are so blind as those who don't want to see. In another column we publish a series of notorious facts from the Washington Union, that no one will pretend to deny. They overwhelm all the ex parte bogus certificates from Abolition sources. A Massachusetts Abolition sheet, and its Abolition correspondent are very much opposed indeed to the American party. So much so that they are working with the party zealously for the election of Banks as Governor of their State!

15 Those who have read the effusions of the organ upon the Washington riots, must be edified with the results of the editor's information. The Plug-Uglies were not hurt, it seems. The marines didn't fire at them at all. They killed and wounded only foreigners and Democrats. This ought to be entirely satisfactory to the brethren. "Only one American was shot, when scores of Democrats, women, children, and negroes were killed or wounded." Now, it is not amiss to kill Democrats, men, women, and children; such things have been done and successfully defended before the brethren. It was bad policy to shoot the negroes, for they are worth some five hundred or a thousand dollars apiece, but what matters if an Irish papist, or a German infidel was killed. The brethren should be consoled when they read the developments in the organ. They were aiding the Plug-Uglies. So says the organ; and yet the editor is very indignant. We should like to know what is the matter with him, and the brethren would like to know. The marines could not have done better, according to the organ and its affidavit makers. The editor ought to thank Buchanan, Major Magruder, and especially the marines, that they could not be trusted; for they did not shoot Americans, but Democrats and foreigners. It is thought very atrocious that the Mayor said there should be no child's play; that he would give them powder and ball. He was right to proclaim the intention that he determined to execute. It is to be regretted that he was not believed. It is to be regretted that he had not time to issue a proclamation stating distinctly that there should be no child's play; that he would give the mob powder and ball. Powder and ball are precisely what ought to be used upon a mob; especially one that obstructs the polls to insult American citizens, and drives them from the elective franchise.

16 The editor of the organ says the Mayor of Washington knew the marines could be trusted to fire on Americans, for they were nearly all Irish; yet he shows they could not be trusted, for "scores of Democrats, women, and children, and negroes were killed or wounded, and but one American."

" The letter to the Boston Traveller, which we published yesterday, was written by one who avows himself opposed alike to Americans and Douglass' Journal.

Then he was a Black Republican, and a very fit witness to testify against Buchanan before a Kentucky tribunal!

" The clergyman who gives a certificate, which was republished in the Journal from an Abolition sheet, is probably one of the three thousand who protested in the name of Almighty God against the Nebraska-Kansas bill!

" The organ yesterday morning contained an article written in the most violent and revolutionary style. The writer represents that the organs of the Democratic party laud the foreign population, and disparage and degrade the native-born. He says the President has judged that the true-hearted sons of the soil are not fit to be trusted with the public arms. "The blush of shame should mantle the cheek of every honest American." Foreign mercenaries, by which republics and empires were brought to ruin, will soon control our government, and the insolence of foreigners toward native-born citizens will be unbearable." He says:

" It is but reasonable that the foreigners should think themselves vastly superior to native-born citizens when they are told that the men of their country far exceed those of the sons of the soil, that their courage is unequalled, while native-born Americans are cowards, and that the spirit of meanness is characteristic of many virtuous Americans, while the base and more brutal foreigners govern the American nation.

" The time has come," says he, "when every American who truly loves his country and her institutions, should ponder well upon this subject, and look into the fearful abyss upon whose very edge we are now tottering." We have insisted upon having the right of suffrage in this city according to the laws and Constitution of this State, and protested agains the practice of regulators who placed themselves in the polls, and drove from the ballot-box men entitled to vote by our laws; but it is idle to insist upon such things with such a party. The case, according to them, is desperate, and requires desperate remedies. They need not deny the practices they are charged with. They can plead a desperate necessity; and let them at once plead it, and deny no more, and look into the "fearful abyss upon whose very verge we are now tottering."

The time has come when this city should look into the fearful abyss upon the very verge of which she is now tottering. If such racing, incendiary, and revolutionary stuff as this is to guide the dominant party in Louisville, we should like to know where her credit will go to. This is the language of revolution, not of a party contest. It invites not to the peaceful support of law, but to the overthrow of institutions that fall to support the rights of the country. If there be a word of truth in this, the time for law is over, and the day of revolution has come. No wonder foreigners are not allowed to vote under such inflammatory language. A desperate necessity over-rides the law and the Constitution. It is a real Mexican pronunciamento addressed to the fiercest passions and adapted to the worst results.

" Who is the correspondent of the Boston Traveller, a abolitionist, and who are these certificate makers paraded as witnesses against the authorities at Washington? Are there any such persons in Washington? Did they ever give such certificates? There are none.

10 That the marines attended at the Seventh street poll, where the Mayor addressed the voters, and urged them to allow the election to proceed, and read the law to them. That the Plug-Uglies and their friends, instead of yielding to the law and request of the Mayor, endeavored to fire the canon, and one sought to shoot Gen. Henderson with a pistol, and was prevented by a blow on the arm from a marine.

11 That by order of their officers the marines, with fixed bayonets, drove the Plug-Uglies and their friends from the cannon, and took possession of the gun, and then fired revolvers and pistols, and threw stones, bricks, and other missiles upon the marines, citizens, and whoever might be in range, and killed some and wounded others, including persons who were quietly in their own houses; and that, under this gallant attack, the marines fired one volley upon the rioters, and they scattered, firing and throwing missiles as they went. Whereupon peace and order were restored.

12 That not a single Know-Nothing is known to have said one word or done one thing to arrest the acts of the Plug-Uglies and their friends, who are a numerous class, and whom they never regarded as respectable and influential citizens, and who could be easily apprehended, and who could be easily apprehended and punished.

13 That the Know-Nothing party here, including their leaders, instead of aiding in detecting and punishing the criminal secret wherever they can, and approve the conduct of the offenders, and condemn those who upheld the law, and who are quiet in their own houses, and who could be easily apprehended, and prevented the effusion of blood and the closing of the poll.

14 That the organ here first published a statement purporting to come from the Washington Organ, when there was no such paper in existence. Now we are treated to a statement from an Abolition paper away in Boston, written by no one known whom, including certificates from persons no body knows; and this is to weigh in the mind of white men against the testimony of every paper in Washington, and against the testimony of eye-witnesses who have told the story. Every where Kentuckians are asked to believe such stuff, from such irresponsible sources, which it wears falsehood upon its face. These boogies witness saw a swivel at the polls in the hands of the mob. Who brought it there, and what was it brought there for? They didn't see one of the marines shot from the crowd, and badly wounded. They didn't see the brick-bats, nor hear the threats to fire the swivel. All this, which everybody else saw and heard, these boogies witness did not observe. All was peaceable. None are so blind as those who don't want to see. In another column we publish a series of notorious facts from

Louisville Democrat.

WEDNESDAY.....JUNE 24, 1857.

JEN Ben. W. Johnston, Esq., the City Clerk, purchased a new Bible yesterday, upon which to qualify witnesses in the City Court—the price paid for the sacred work being thirty cents. It has already been tastefully adorned on the lids with representations of the Cross, done in black writing fluid by the Clerk's own hand. The designs are perfect in their way, and are worthy the attention of amateur artists. It is remarkable that the edition of the good book herefore used in the Clerk's office is in a high state of preservation within; that while the binding is so sadly worn and defaced as to render it utterly useless for purposes of qualification, not a text of the scriptures within has been soiled or defaced—an interesting evidence that it has never been for a moment diverted from the use for which it was originally purchased; that is, the qualification of witnesses. Not by an order of Judge Johnston, but by the act of one empowered to make conveyances, the rejected Bible has been placed in the hands of a lover of old reliques, who prizes it highly as the sacred volume which Mayor Pilcher kissed with so much fervor when he took his oath of office. The book may be seen for a few days upon the desk of our editor.

JEN The prisoner's bench in Police Court yesterday morning presented a motley array of prisoners, arraigned for drunkenness and other misdemeanors. Indeed the business of the court had the appearance of a recapitulation of the affairs of the past month. There were Daniel Martin and two children, Pat Hurley, Chas. Yater, Philip Day, Rachel Wright, and three children, Luke Quim, Enoch Pope, and, as if these were not enough to complete the disgusting retinue, Jane McManus, otherwise "War Eagle," was of the same party, all caught at one drag of the official net. They were found at the head of Washington street, in a beastly state of intoxication, and the adults, with the exception of Jane McManus (who, for the first time in her late experience, was comparatively sober), were sent to the Workhouse, while the children were sent to the alm-house. The other cases of drunkenness embraced Wm. Hoffman, George Covatchowich (or some other titillating cognomen) and Nancy Scott, each of whom were sent to the Workhouse for the period of the summer months.

JEN THE OUTRAGE UPON JESSE TALBOTT.—On Friday last, the day after the difficulty occurred between Nat. Dubois and Jesse Talbott we gave the particulars of the affair. On Sunday morning we stated that Dubois had not yet been arrested. Mr. White, the City Marshal, informed us that immediately after the warrant was placed in his hands (the morning subsequent to the day upon which the outrage was committed) he informed Mr. Hill, the keeper of the Workhouse, at which Dubois was engaged as quarryman, of the fact that he had the warrant in his possession for Dubois' arrest, and that Mr. Hill pledged himself to retain Dubois in his custody at the Workhouse until such time as his presence should be required at the Police Court; that but for this pledge on the part of Mr. Hill, he should have proceeded immediately to the Workhouse, arrested Dubois and placed him in jail. The testimony in Police Court yesterday seems to have differed materially from the statements of witnesses at the time the shooting was done, as we perceive both parties were held to bail in $300 each to an indictment for an affray.

JEN RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The train over the New Albany and Salem Railroad, which connects with the cars over the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad at Mitchell, and which was do at New Albany yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, met some obstruction near Campbellsburg, ten miles west of Salem, and the tender, baggage car, and one passenger car were thrown from the track. There was no injury done to any one, and the cars were soon replaced again, by the vigilant and enterprising officers of the railroad.

JEN IT has been made the duty of the Mayor to purchase a pair of horses for the new steam fire-engine, Eclipse. Major Pilcher and a posse of Councilmen were jockeying about yesterday with that view. They had tried several malpractices in the machine, and a pair of fine-looking bays, the property of Mr. Peter Merkle, the brewer, gave general satisfaction, but the price ($550) was rather above municipal views.

JEN THE NEGRO FIREMEN OF SAVANNAH.—The colored firemen of Savannah, Ga., had a grand public procession there on the 4th inst. There were ten companies altogether, making some 800 men, with their engines and hose tastefully decorated with flowers and wreaths. In the course of the day they were reviewed by the Chief Engineer, the Mayor of the city, and Aldermen.

JEN Margaret Daily was made the subject of a peace warrant in Police Court yesterday, issued by Elizabeth Saunders. The parties finally agreed to submit to the decision of Officer Ewell, who seemed to know them both intimately. The agreement was rather unfortunate for the Saunders woman, and the warrant was dismissed.

JEN THE Grand Jury for the city was in session again yesterday, and heard a large amount of testimony. A great many indictments were found, of which no return will be made until next Tuesday. Several persons are understood to have been indicted for participating in the disturbance at the First-ward polls last Monday night.

JEN Our able contemporary, the Evansville Enquirer, is now published regularly on Sunday morning. We commend the taste and morality, as the editor and employees are thus enabled to observe the Christian Sabbath, and their subscribers have the advantage of a good Christian paper for Sunday reading.

JEN THE GREAT EASTERN.—The question as to the destination of the Leviathan steamship Great Eastern has been settled. The Grand Trunk Railway Company have already made arrangements for the vessel to come to Portland, Maine, to connect with their splendid iron highway.

JEN A peace-warrant, the parties to which were Margaret McCaffrey, Esq., Rebecca Courier (mother and daughter), residing in Portland, was tried in Police Court yesterday. The husband and father of the Courieris gave bond for the good behavior of his family.

JEN See advertisement of salesman wanted. The house wishing such salesmen is located on Main street, and a man from twenty-five to thirty years of age, thoroughly competent, will be preferred.

JEN Dr. Jones will be compelled to remain at the Galt House a few days longer, to get through with the immense number of patients now on their way to see him from various parts of the State.

JEN Elizabeth Hawck, from the best representations, no victim to a misnomer, was held in Police Court yesterday to answer a charge of cruelty beating a little daughter of Nicholas Price

PACIFIC HOTEL.—This is the name of a splendid new hotel which will be opened soon in St. Louis, by our old friend, Dr. D. W. Strader.

Personal.

LW. Mason, Esq., the accomplished music-teacher, late of this city, but at present engaged in the city schools of Cincinnati, has been tendered the compliment of a concert for his benefit, by his pupils in Cincinnati. Mr. Mason is deserving of any compliment his new friends may see fit to pay him.

The Henderson Commercial passes a high eulogy upon the life and character of the late P. S. Buckingham, a lawyer of that city, who died on Friday last.

Mons. Martena, the ventriloquist and musician, is giving entertainments in New Albany.

Dr. Evans, of Covington, while taking a hig ride with his wife, Sunday evening, met with a serious accident, being thrown from the vehicle. His lady escaped uninjured.

W. G. Overton, long known as a newspaper man in this city, will start to Washington City to-day, with the view of making arrangements for a permanent residence in the National Capital.

Capt. T. Willie Andrews has been elected to the command of the Louisville Guards, vice L. B. White, is resigned. Capt. Andrews has been placed in the hands of a lover of old reliques, who prizes it highly as the sacred volume which Mayor Pilcher kissed with so much fervor when he took his oath of office. The book may be seen for a few days upon the desk of our editor.

JEN The prisoner's bench in Police Court yesterday morning presented a motley array of prisoners, arraigned for drunkenness and other misdemeanors. Indeed the business of the court had the appearance of a recapitulation of the affairs of the past month. There were Daniel Martin and two children, Pat Hurley, Chas. Yater, Philip Day, Rachel Wright, and three children, Luke Quim, Enoch Pope, and, as if these were not enough to complete the disgusting retinue, Jane McManus, otherwise "War Eagle," was of the same party, all caught at one drag of the official net.

They were found at the head of Washington street, in a beastly state of intoxication, and the adults, with the exception of Jane McManus (who, for the first time in her late experience, was comparatively sober), were sent to the Workhouse, while the children were sent to the alm-house. The other cases of drunkenness embraced Wm. Hoffman, George Covatchowich (or some other titillating cognomen) and Nancy Scott, each of whom were sent to the Workhouse for the period of the summer months.

JEN CROPS IN THE MIAMI VALLEY.—An intelligent agent of the Great Miami Valley informs us that the farmers are generally satisfied with the excellent prospect for large crops. He says that the wheat fields promise to yield extraordinary quantities of the precious grain out of which comes our daily bread. The rapins have not yet damaged the wheat. A fortnight of fine weather, and the harvest will be one in which the richest of the fat of the land will be reaped. The corn is not flourishing excessively in the field, but is doing as well as can be expected, with sufficient time for it to come out. The gardens, orchards, pasture lands, melon patches, and meadows are all in encouraging gaiture. Civ. Com., 23d.

JEN THE St. Louis Intelligencer, of Monday, contains the following interesting items of news:

FLOOD COMING.—The last arrivals report the upper Mississippi very high, heavy rains having fallen all through the upper country. Every tributary was booming, and the Mississippi is some places out of its banks. This account is borne out by a statement in another column, from the Clerk's Office of St. Paul, whereas as just returned from St. Paul. A gentleman who arrived yesterday by the cars from the upper Missouri, reports the river rising very fast. Heavy rains had fallen, and a fine stage in the river was expected. The river here continues the increase.

We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We learn that ex-Mayor Barbee, of this city, returned from a business visit East this week. While he was in New York we hear that he was offered $5 for Louisville bonds.

Our accomplished young friend, Dr. Alex Forsyth, the eminent surgeon, has announced as an independent candidate for Corporation of Fourth and Market streets.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS.—An experienced farmer says that Porter's Oriental Life Liniment is worth a hundred dollars a year to him, and he would not be without it if it cost ten dollars per bottle. Every farmer should keep a supply of this liniment on hand. It is a well known fact, that it is the most certain and reliable remedy known for the cure of fresh cuts, sprains, bruises, &c., in man or beast; and for the cure of saddle and collar-galls in horses, it has no equal. Two hundred and fifty thousand bottles of the Oriental Life Liniment have been sold in the last six months, and has given general satisfaction to all who have used it. It is sold by druggists and merchants everywhere, at twenty-five and fifty cents and one dollar per bottle.

JEN WE invite the attention of our readers to the very rich jewelry and watches of the Messrs. F. Yeiser & Co., on Fourth street, under National Hotel, which they are offering at cost for the purpose of closing their business in Louisville. Now is a very rare chance to purchase fine jewelry and watches. It will be seen from their card that they request an early attention of persons who wish to let them to their accounts. Je18 dtw

HIBER AND WEATHER.

News by Telegraph.

CINCINNATI, June 23, m.—The weather is very cold and dry.

MARSHFIELD, June 23, m.—The thermometer is 73 degrees and the weather clear.

Saint Louis, June 23, m.—The river is still rising here. The regular June rise is coming down from above, and plenty of water everywhere. The weather is clear and warm.

A small storm in Buchanan county, Missouri, on Saturday destroyed the crops and killed cattle in the fields, several men were severely injured. One negro was shot. The stones were as large as goose eggs.

CINCINNATI, June 23, p.—The river has fallen two feet during the last twenty-four hours. The weather is clear and pleasant.

PITTSBURGH, June 23, p.—The river is 7 feet deep and falling. Weather clear and cool.

HOTEL OF THE DAY.

ST. LOUIS, June 23—The steamer White Cloud, from St. Paul, on Wednesday night last, just below Lake Pepin, ran into the woods. A tree, striking just forward of the starboard wheel, carried away the water-wheel beam, smashed up the wheel-house, and tore off the roof, gashed the guard, on which were hitched six mules. The horses were scattered, and the mules were unheld on the bank unshod, and the boat rounded up, and took them on board again.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.—The steamer White Cloud, from St. Paul, on Wednesday night last, just below Lake Pepin, ran into the woods. A tree, striking just forward of the starboard wheel, carried away the water-wheel beam, smashed up the wheel-house, and tore off the roof, gashed the guard, on which were hitched six mules. The horses were scattered, and the mules were unheld on the bank unshod, and the boat rounded up, and took them on board again.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city. Under the water went down seven persons. Two were picked up by a steamer bound for two hours, and five men were lost.

THE AMERICAN.—The cargo is, of course, in entire loss, and we regret to add, uninsured.

JEN We regret to learn that in the storm which passed over this vicinity on Tuesday evening last, a flatboat laden with about 4,000 barrels of lime was sunk near the mouth of Coles' creek, a few miles above this city

